(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
San Francisco, Cai., February 20.—
Despite the fact that most of the San Francisco sporting men incline toward Battling Nelson as the winner of next Tuesday's lightweight battle, there are many who persist in believing that the day of the Dane is done, and that he will strike his colors to the little Dutchman, before the battle has gone twenty-five rounds. Among the men entertaining this opinion are some of the keenest critics of boxing in this, or any other, country.

and Knife, but Escapes with His Life. George Mason, colored, met a party of friends early last night, and when they let him get away from him he went to the Second Police Station. He told the officers that his friends had hit him in the mouth with a brickbat, beat and cuffed him, and that one had attempted to stab him. His clothes were slashed in goveral places, but the knife, fortunately, did not touch his body. A warrant was issued for their arrest.
